Evergreen Quilt 2026 Show Entry Information

Other Requirements and Information:

- The Quilt Show Committee classifies entries and reserves the right to reject any quilts that are soiled, damaged, inappropriate, or exceed available display space. Tied quilts or cheater blocks are not acceptable except in youth or non-judged categories.
- All quilts (unless otherwise indicated on the Entry Form) must fit the definition of “quilt:” Three (3) layers - backing, filler (batting or fabric) and top, stitched together.
- All quilts must have a sleeve that is 4” deep and the width of the quilt. The top of the sleeve must be sewn no more than 112” from the bottom of the quilt, even if that means the sleeve is in the middle of the design. Quilts with improper sleeve placement or without sleeves will be rejected. Wall hangings or quilts less than 120” perimeter may be pinned to sheeting or hung with sleeve.
- Art quilts must be delivered with a wooden or metal bar ready to be inserted into the quilt sleeve. The rod must have a $\frac{1}{4}$ ” hole drilled $\frac{1}{4}$ ” from both the top and $\frac{1}{4}$ ” from the end of the bar. The sleeve must be shorter than the overall quilt width, so from the back, the rod and hole are easily accessible to hang the quilt. The bar must not be visible from the front of the quilt. The bar must be clearly labeled with the quilt name, quilter’s name, and phone number. If desired, a bottom sleeve and labeled bar may be used, but it is not necessary. Quilts not meeting the above requirements may not be hung in the show.
- Further details on sleeves for bed and art quilts are on the website <http://evergreenquiltersguild.com/>
- Each entry must have a legible fabric label with the quilter’s name, which must be basted preferably to the back lower left corner of the quilt, and to the inside of other quilted items. Pin the Quilt Identification Tag over the label, right side down.
- All items must remain on display until the show closes on Saturday, April 18, 2026 at 3:00 pm. Quilts must be picked up during designated pick-up time slots or through arranged shipping.
- Evergreen Quilters Guild does not handle the sale of any items or collect commissions.
- Items entered in previous Evergreen Quilt Shows will not be accepted.
